

South London Spas and Springs Geotrail

Wednesday 14 October 10.30am – 4pm (approx.)

Meet outside the entrance to Sydenham Hill Station
Trains from Victoria (10.10 will arrive at 10.24)

The London Geodiversity Partnership has developed a five-mile Geological Trail between Sydenham Hill and West Dulwich railway stations that take in spas and springs along the way. The morning will go through Sydenham Wells Park and Sydenham Woods to the Horniman Museum. There, will be a magnificent view across London and a convenient stop for lunch. In the afternoon the walk will continue through Dulwich Park, past Dulwich Wells with a discussion on the route of the River Effra in Belair Park to reach West Dulwich station.

For more information email: info@londongeopartnership.org.uk

The walk is free and does not require booking